Now that you've got 25 ways to make sales, what are you going to do?

Step 1. Mark down all your launches in a calendar that you follow daily. If you're not using a calendar, start doing it. Planning is the key to success.

Step 2. Prepare and complete your offers at least 30 days in advance when possible. It will make it a breeze to queue up some mails and start seeing massive profits.

Step 3. Start adding links at the end of your emails pushing your special offers, products, services and membership sites.

That's it! It works, it's proven and it's extremely profitable.

I hope you enjoyed this report and hope more that you don't leave it hanging around. Out of the 365 days in a year there's a tonne of opportunities to continue bringing in new customers and growing your brand.

To Your Success,

Garry Lynn Baker
